

Why MARRS ?

MARRS is a global leader in document management, integration services and support. MARRS helps organizations manage documents in the workplace effectively and helps derive value from their disparate physical or digital information assets, automating its use across the enterprise.

MARRS was founded in 2006 as a professional services company that has acquired a range of expertise through aggressive hiring of new talent and under various private acquisition agreements, primarily in Healthcare, Consulting, Information Technology, and Staffing. MARRS Professional Services has a strategic relationship with Vignette/ Open Text as a Value Added Reseller and a professional services implementation partner for as well.

Manipal Reddy, Praveen Kalvala and Shay Reddy are the principals of the company and are committed to its success !

Solutions for Healthcare

Imaging and workflow, Services ,Support

MARRS has implemented solutions for enterprise healthcare platforms. Document imaging integration, HL7 integration and deployment as well as many types of Electronic Medical Record Integrations. Some of the nation's premier healthcare organizations have used a MARRS Services along with Vignette / Open Text's imaging and workflow systems. MARRS has integrated with Enterprise systems such as Cerner, EPIC, All scripts, Vadyas and GE Centricity systems.

Enterprise Imaging and Workflow Integration Solutions

MARRS I & W Services

MARRS has implemented solutions for enterprise healthcare platforms for document imaging integration and HL7 integration. MARRS has helped develop customized solutions for healthcare institutions to manage point of service scanning solutions and help optimize workflows throughout the enterprise. MARRS has also developed enterprise level transcription, document creation, retention and electronic signature modules that work with various healthcare management solutions.

HL7 Data Integration Services

Integrate your Disparate Data

MARRS Professional Services has developed process, software and solutions for managing disparate information across the healthcare enterprise and manage to scan, index and deploy using HI& interfaces to seamlessly integrate with various healthcare information management systems